

PRIVACY POLICY

We request that you read this privacy policy carefully.

Your privacy is very important to us. We want to make your experience on the Internet as enjoyable and rewarding as possible, and we want you to use the Internet's vast array of information, tools, and opportunities with complete confidence.

We have created this privacy policy to demonstrate commitment of New Millennium Education (hereafter referred to as "the Company") to privacy and security. This privacy policy describes how the Company collects information from all end-users of our Internet services (the "Services") - those who access some of the Services that do not have accounts ("Visitors") as well as those who may purchase products and/or pay a service fee to subscribe to the service ("Members") - what we do with the information we collect, and the choices Visitors and Members have concerning the collection and use of such information.

Personal information the Company collects and how it is used

Introduction: The Company collects information in different ways from Visitors and Members who access the various parts of the Services in the network of websites. We use this information primarily to provide a customized experience as you use our products and Services, and generally, do not share this information with third parties. However, we may disclose personal information collected if we have received your permission before-hand or in very special circumstances, such as when we believe that such disclosure is required by law or other special cases described below.

Registration: Members may be asked to provide certain personal information when they sign up for our products or Services including name, address, telephone number, billing information (such as a credit card number), and the type of personal computer being used to access the Services. The personal information collected from Members during the registration process is used to manage each member's account (such as for billing purposes). This information is not shared with third parties, unless specifically stated otherwise or in special circumstances.

However, in instances where the Company and a partner jointly promote our Services, we may provide the partner certain personal information, such as the name, address, and username of persons who subscribe to the Services as a result of the joint promotion for the sole purpose of allowing us and the partner to assess the results of the promotion.

In this instance, personal information may not be used by the partner for any other purpose. We may also generate non-identifying aggregate profiles for personal information Members provide during registration (such as the total number, but not the names, of Members). As explained in more detail below, we may use this aggregated and non-identifying information to sell advertisements that appear on the Services.

Our company, partners, and sponsors: Some products and Services may be offered to Visitors and Members in conjunction with an affiliate, independent contractor seller or non-affiliated partner. To provide Visitors and Members some of these products and Services, the partner may need to collect and maintain personal information. In these instances, you will be notified before any such data is collected or transferred and may decide not to use that particular service or feature.

Additionally, our partners may have advertisements or co-branded web pages that are cosponsored by the affiliate, independent contractor seller, or non-affiliated partner. Our company may share non-identifying and aggregate information (except as described above), but not personal information, with such partners in order to administer the co-branded products or Services offered.

Online shopping: At some websites, you can purchase products and Services or register to receive materials, such as a newsletter, catalog or new product and service updates. In many cases, you may be asked to provide contact information, such as your name, address, e-mail address, phone number, and credit/debit card information.

If you complete an order for someone else, such as an online gift order sent directly to a recipient, you may be asked to provide information about the recipient, such as the recipient's name, address, and phone number. The Company has no control over the third party's use of any personal information you provide when placing such an order. Please exercise care when doing so.

If you order Services or products directly from the Company we will use the personal information you provide only to process the order. We do not share this information with outside parties except to the extent necessary to complete that order.

Online advertisements: The Company may display online advertisements. In those cases we share aggregated and non-identifying information about our Visitors and Members collected through the registration process as well as through online surveys and promotions with these advertisers.

Additionally, in some instances, we use this aggregated and non-identifying information to deliver tailored advertisements or joint ventures. For instance, an advertiser or joint venture company tells us the audience they want to reach and provides us an advertisement tailored to the audience based upon aggregated and non-identifying information we have collected, we may then display or send advertisement to the intended audience. Our company does not share personal information about its Visitors or Members with these advertisers or joint venture companies.

Responses to e-mail inquiries: When Visitors or Members send e-mail inquiries to the Company, the return e-mail address is used to answer the e-mail inquiry we receive. The Company does not use the return e-mail address for any other purpose and does not share the return e-mail address with any third party.

Voluntary customer surveys: We may periodically conduct both business and individual customer surveys. We encourage our customers to participate in these surveys because they provide us with important information that helps us to improve the types of products and Services we offer and how we provide them to you. Your personal information and responses will remain strictly confidential, even if the survey is conducted by a third party. Participation in our customer surveys is voluntary.

We may take the information we receive from individuals responding to our customer surveys and combine (or aggregate) it with the responses of other customers we may have, to create broader, generic responses to the survey questions (such as gender, age, residence, hobbies, education, employment, industry sector, or other demographic information). We then use the aggregated information to improve the quality of our Services to you, and to develop new Services and products. This aggregated non-personally identifying information may be shared with third parties.

Special cases: It is the Company's policy not to use or share the personal information about Visitors or Members in ways unrelated to the ones described above without also providing you an opportunity to opt out or otherwise prohibit such unrelated uses.

However, we may disclose personal information about Visitors or Members, or information regarding your use of the Services or websites accessible through our Services, for any reason if, in our sole discretion, we believe that it is responsible to do so, including: credit agencies, collection agencies, merchant database agencies, law enforcement, or to satisfy laws, such as the Electronic Communications Privacy Act, the Child Online Privacy Act, regulations, or governmental or legal requests for such information; to disclose information that is necessary to identify, contact, or bring legal action against someone who may be violating our Acceptable Use Policy or Terms Of Service, or other user policies; to operate the Services properly; or to protect our company and our Members.

"Cookies" and how the Company uses them: A "cookie" is a small data file that can be placed on your hard drive when you visit certain websites. The Company may use cookies to collect, store, and sometimes track information for statistical purposes to improve the products and Services we provide and to manage our telecommunications networks.

If you are a visitor or member, we may use a cookie to save your settings and to provide customizable and personalized Services. These cookies do not enable third parties to access any of your customer information. Additionally, be aware that if you visit other websites where you are prompted to login or that are customizable, you may be required to accept cookies.

Advertisers and partners may also use their own cookies. We do not control use of these cookies and expressly disclaim responsibility for information collected through them.

The company commitment to children's privacy: Protecting children's privacy is especially important to us. It is our policy to comply with the Children's Online Privacy Protection Act of 1998 and all other applicable laws.

Public forums: Please remember that any information you disclose in any member directory, or other public areas of our website or the Internet, becomes public information. You should exercise caution when deciding to disclose personal information in these public areas.

The Company's commitment to data security: Services and websites we sponsor have security measures in place to protect the loss, misuse, and alteration of the information under our control. While we make every effort to ensure the integrity and security of our network and systems, we cannot guarantee that our security measures will prevent third-party "hackers" from illegally obtaining this information.

Where to direct questions about our privacy policy: If you have any questions about this privacy policy or the practices described herein, you may contact us through the contact information provided on this website.

Revisions to this policy: The Company reserves the right to revise, amend, or modify this policy, our terms of service agreement, and our other policies and agreements at any time and in any manner, by updating this posting. Your use of this site after such changes are implemented constitutes your knowledge and acceptance of these changes. Please consult this privacy statement prior to every use for any changes.
